KILLER WHALE

Killer whale - ancient mariners called it "the demon from hell", no doubt horrified witnesses to its brutal attacks. An enigmatic killer, this one hour special, filmed in Alaska, Canada and South America shows every aspect of the killer whale with stunning underwater ferocity and a slow-motion sequence as it captures an elephant seal off the Patagonian coast.

Filmed by Jeff Foott.
Produced by Malcolm Penny.

SHARK!

The inspiration for this Special was Peter Benchley of "Jaws" fame. Benchley felt that he had given sharks a disastrously bad name with his best-seller and the film that followed it. So much so, that skin-divers were killing sharks indiscriminately wherever and whenever they encountered them. Benchley approached Survival to make a film that would show that sharks are not always lethal and that many species aren't dangerous at all.

Filmed by Stan Waterman.
Produced by Colin Willock.
